Martial Arts Team from Korea to Perform

Raymore, MO (July 15, 2011) – On Saturday, July 30, 2011 at 3:00 p.m. Pak's Academy of Raymore is hosting a performance by a South Korean martial arts demonstration team, an elite group of black belt martial arts experts. The performance is part of their 2011 USA Tour. "I'm excited to be able to showcase Tae Kwon Do on this level," said Master Se Chun Pak, owner of Pak's Academy and a former member of the Korean Tigers. "These martial artists are highly skilled and put on a high-energy, technically amazing show."

The demonstration team is made up of 16 college students from martial arts universities in South Korea. They're known for their speed, power, high-flying kicks and outstanding exhibition skills. The July 30 event will include Tae Kwon Do, Hap Ki Do, sparring, board-breaking, and self-defense demonstrations.

The demonstration will be at Ray-Pec south high school at 20801 S. School Rd., Peculiar, MO. Tickets are $9 in advance, or $12 at the door. Advance tickets can be purchased from Pak's Academy students or at Pak's Academy, 411 Pine Street in Raymore (816-322-5000).

Video cameras are not permitted (except by approved press members).
